

Developing Hearts that Yearn for Justice

WHAT OTHERS SAID ABOUT PREVIOUS CONFERENCES

"I've been to more conferences on how we practice our faith than I care to count, but I must say that this was the best in my memory."

Rick Ufford-Chase, Moderator
Presbyterian Church USA

"The one week spent at Casa del Migrante in Tijuana was more crucial in understanding global economic oppression than any seminary class or religious book that can be read on the subject."

Miguel de la Torre, Professor, Author of Reading the Bible from the Margins

"It was truly a landmark conference. There were profound presentations on the economic, ethical and spiritual dimensions of immigration and globalization."

Rosemary Radford Ruether, Presenter

"Living together with the migrants at this conference, and being in conversation with them about their daily tragedies profoundly moved my heart."

Elsa Tamez, Speaker

RELIGION THAT IS PURE AND UNFILED . . . IS THIS: TO CARE FOR THE ORPHANED AND WIDOWS IN THEIR DISTRESS.

James 1:27

Justice for Women and Children

January 18-21, 2010
San Diego, CA
Tijuana, Mexico

T.W.O.
Transformational
World Opportunities

c/o 6422 Caminito Listo
San Diego, CA 92111-6858
Email: Hearts2010@san.rr.com
www.hearts4justice.org
(858) 278-8800

T.W.O.
Transformational
World Opportunities

Developing Hearts that Yearn for Justice

ECUMENICAL THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION IN A THIRD WORLD SETTING FOR CLERGY AND LAY CHURCH WORKERS

January 18-21, 2010

- LISTEN
- SHARE
- LEARN
- ENGAGE
- STRETCH
- QUESTION
- EXPERIENCE

reflecting on the gospel
of justice for women
and children

Speakers - Helping us Focus:

Renita Weems, Minister, Old Testament scholar, author of Just a Sister Away and Listening for God: A Minister's Journey through Silence and Doubt, from Nashville, Tennessee.

Matthew Fox, Episcopal Priest, author of Original Blessing and founding director of YELLAWE, a program for inner city teenagers in Oakland, CA.

Elizabeth S. Tapia, United Methodist pastor, activist in Asian women's liberation, grew up in a village near Manila. Director, Center for Christianities in Global Contexts, Drew Univ, NJ.

Thomas Gumbleton, Catholic Bishop, social activist, author of The Peace Pulpit blog for the National Catholic Reporter, from Detroit, Michigan.

Lauran Bethell, Global Consultant for ministries with victims of human trafficking and prostitution, based in The Netherlands. With American Baptist Churches/USA.

social analysis

biblical vision

engaging the powers

TRAVEL

Passports are now needed in crossing back into USA from Mexico. Return flights on January 21 should be scheduled after 4 p.m. There will be pickups at the San Diego airport all day on January 18.

ACCOMODATIONS

We will be staying at the Casa Del Migrante in Tijuana Mexico (30 min. from San Diego). Participants need to be able to navigate stairs & handle their own luggage. The Casa has dormitory style sleeping on bunk beds, hot showers, bottled water, and safe, good food. Wi-Fi available.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

Go to hearts4justice.org or use this form:

- $50 non refundable registration fee
- $200 balance due by December 1, 2009
- $250 full conference fee

(The cost covers program, meals, room, and transportation from San Diego to Casa Del Migrante.)

Name

Address

City/State/Zip

E-Mail

Phone

Balance of registration due

Church/Denomination/Agency

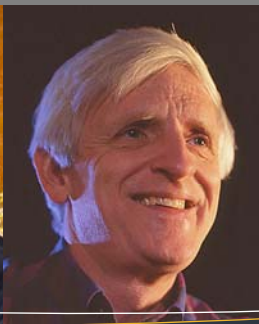

Occupation

Please make checks out to:
Transformational World Opportunities
c/o 6422 Caminito Listo
San Diego, CA 92111-6858
Email: Hearts2010@san.rr.com

Renita Weems

Matthew Fox

Elizabeth S. Tapia

Thomas Gumbleton

Lauran Bethell

WHAT DOES THE LORD REQUIRE OF YOU BUT TO DO JUSTICE, TO LOVE KINDNESS, AND WALK HUMBLY WITH YOUR GOD?

Micah 6:8