Involving Congregations in Advocacy Now

The Involving Congregations in Advocacy Now (I CAN) program is designed to equip clergy and lay leaders to:

1. Deepen their understanding of faith roots and Lutheran perspectives around advocacy,
2. Enhance individuals advocacy skills,
3. Equip individuals to develop an advocacy program in their congregation,
4. Be knowledgeable about advocacy resources and methods to obtain more in-depth information.

Participants - The target audience for this program is an Evangelical Lutheran Church in America member, who is committed to advocacy and speaking out for justice. The program will focus on the needs fo those who are oppressed and or live in poverty.
