

2010 Global Mission Lenten Series

Worship in Chile

Karen Anderson

Sharing the Peace in Chile

Greetings in general in Chile are very important. When someone comes or goes from a gathering everyone is greeted – usually by a handshake with an abrazo (hug) and a kiss to the right cheek. Immediately following the service in our congregation in Chile, everyone shares the peace with everyone else with this traditional greeting (handshake, abrazo and kiss) and the words, Que el Paz del Señor Sea Contigo (May the peace of the Lord be with you!)