 - b. Each cluster or conference shall work cooperatively with the synodical women's organization in funding the cluster or conference and synodical women's organization program and projects.
 - c. Each synodical women's organization shall develop and administer its own budget.
- The budget shall include the synodical women's organization program and operating cost and reflect the interdependent relationship between the synodical women's organization and the churchwide women's organization. The proposed budget shall be presented as information to the churchwide women's organization executive board prior to its recommendation to the synodical women's organization convention for adoption.
- There shall be an elected treasurer in each synodical women's organization with specific responsibilities for assisting in building the budget and disbursing funds. There shall be an elected or appointed person responsible for leadership in the areas of promotion, interpretation, and financial stewardship education.
- d. The executive board shall approve the budget, prepared by the executive director and staff, which includes support for the churchwide women's organization and an annual Gift to the Church, and recommend it to the Triennial Convention for adoption. The executive board shall approve and adopt the budget in the years in which a convention is not scheduled.
- Item 4. The executive board shall provide financial reports periodically through the official publications of this organization.

ARTICLE XI—CONVENTIONS

SECTION 1. Convention Authority

The Triennial Convention shall be the highest legislative authority of Women of the ELCA and shall deal with all matters that are necessary in the pursuit of the purpose and functions of this organization. The powers of the Triennial Convention are limited only by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, this constitution and these bylaws, the policies of the ELCA, and the convention's own resolutions.

SECTION 2. Triennial Convention Program

The Triennial Convention shall provide opportunities for witness, growth, and community.

SECTION 3. Triennial and Special Conventions

Women of the ELCA shall meet in convention triennially. Special Conventions may be called by a two-thirds vote of the executive board, and Special Conventions shall be called by the president of Women of the ELCA at the request in writing of at least two-thirds of the boards of the synodical women's organizations.

- Item 1. The time and place of the Triennial Convention shall be determined by the executive board.
- Item 2. The secretary shall give notice of the time and place of each Triennial Convention by publication thereof at least 90 days in advance in the periodical of Women of the ELCA.
- Item 3. At least 20 days prior to the Triennial Convention, the secretary shall distribute preconvention reports to each voting member-elect.
- Item 4. The arrangements for agenda, program, and worship shall be under the supervision of the executive board.
- Item 5. The churchwide women's organization shall be responsible for the costs of the Triennial and Special Conventions, including the reasonable costs for travel, housing, and board for the delegates and members of the executive board.
- Item 6. A majority of delegates registered at the Triennial or Special Convention shall constitute a quorum.
- Item 7. Immediately upon the issuance of the call for a Special Convention, the secretary shall give written notice to voting members seated in the preceding Triennial Convention, provided they have not ceased to participate in a unit within the synodical women's organization from which they were elected or are not superseded by election of new delegates.
- Item 8. Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition, shall be the governing parliamentary procedures of the Triennial or Special Conventions, except as otherwise provided in this constitution and these bylaws.

SECTION 4. Members of the Triennial Convention

The voting members of the Triennial Convention shall be the voting members of Women of the ELCA. The requirements for voting members of the convention and other members shall be specified in the bylaws.

SECTION 5. Voting Members of the Triennial Convention

- Item 1. The voting members of the Triennial Convention shall be the officers of the churchwide women's organization, the members of the churchwide executive board, the presidents of the synodical women's organizations, those women elected as delegates by the conventions of the synodical women's organizations, and those appointed as "at large" delegates by the churchwide organization.

Item 3. There shall be a constitution review committee composed of members of the executive board appointed by the president.

SECTION 7. Non-voting Members of the Executive Board

Item 1. The Bishop of the ELCA or the Bishop's representative and a Conference of Bishop's representative shall have seat and voice but not vote at all executive board meetings.

Item 2. Terms of advisors shall coincide with the term of office in the respective unit and/or organization they represent.

Item 3. Other categories of non-voting members may be established by the executive board.

ARTICLE XIV—NOMINATIONS AND ELECTION PROCESS

SECTION 1. Procedures

The churchwide women's organization shall elect such officers and such other persons as the constitution and bylaws may require and according to procedures set forth in the bylaws.

SECTION 2. Guidelines for Nominations

Item 1. At least 10 percent of the nominees shall be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English.

Item 2. Consideration shall be given to geographical location, variety of ages, and diversity of experience.

SECTION 3. Provisions

The following provisions shall govern the nomination and election process

Item 1. It shall be the responsibility of the executive board to assure that this organization maintains its commitment to inclusive representation. At least 10 percent of the members of the executive board shall be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English.

Item 2. Each nominee for an elected or appointed position in this organization shall be a participant in a unit and a member of the ELCA.

Item 3. In all Triennial Convention elections, except that of the president and vice president, a majority of the votes cast shall elect.

Item 4. When there are floor nominations, the first ballot shall include the names of the nominees presented by the Nominating Committee and the names of the persons nominated from the floor.

Item 5. All elections shall be by ballot.

Item 6. Board members shall be elected in such a manner that at least one person is elected from the territory of each of the nine ELCA regions, with no more than one officer or board member from any one synodical women's organization. No more than one-half of the synodical women's organizations in a region shall have members on the executive board at the same time.

- Item 7. No board member shall hold two positions of leadership simultaneously in a synodical women's organization and/or the churchwide women's organization.

SECTION 4. The Nominating Committee

- Item 1. This committee shall consist of nine persons nominated from the roll of the Triennial Convention voting members-elect and elected by the executive board.
- Item 2. This committee shall be selected on the basis of the inclusiveness guidelines and shall include one member from the territory of each of the nine ELCA regions.
- Item 3. This committee shall meet no earlier than 170 days and no later than 140 days prior to the Triennial Convention.
- Item 4. This committee shall prepare the slate of nominees for the offices of secretary and treasurer and for members of the board from names submitted by the Triennial Convention voting members-elect and units. If the names submitted to the Triennial Convention Nominating Committee do not fulfill the nominations criteria, the committee may recruit other names from congregational units, delegates, and churchwide officers to fulfill its goals.
- Item 5. This committee shall nominate no more than one person from a synodical women's organization.
- Item 6. Members of the committee shall be ineligible for nomination by the committee to any position to be filled. Committee members may, however, be nominated from the floor.
- Item 7. This committee shall present two names for each position to be filled. Nominations may be made from the floor for those elections for which nominations have been made by the committee.

SECTION 5. Election of the Churchwide Women's Organization Officers

- Item 1. The president shall be elected by the Triennial Convention by a nominating ballot. Three-fourths of the votes cast shall be necessary for election on the first ballot. If no one is elected, the first ballot shall be considered the nominating ballot. Two-thirds of the votes cast on the second ballot shall be necessary for election. On subsequent ballots a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. The third ballot shall be limited to the five persons (plus ties) who received the greatest number of votes on the second ballot. An information sheet shall show for each of the five nominees her address, synodical organization, and qualifications for office. The fourth ballot shall be limited to the two persons (plus ties) who receive the highest number of votes on the third ballot.
- Item 2. The vice president shall be elected by the Triennial Convention by nominating ballot. Two-thirds of the votes cast shall be necessary for election on the first ballot. If no one is elected, the first ballot shall be considered the nominating ballot. On subsequent ballots a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. On the third ballot, the voting shall be limited to the five persons (plus ties) receiving the highest number of votes on the second ballot. An information sheet shall show for each of the nominees her address, synodical organization, and qualifications for office. The fourth ballot shall be limited to the two persons (plus ties) receiving the highest number of votes on the third ballot.

- Item 3. The secretary and treasurer shall be elected by the Triennial Convention. The Nominating Committee shall present two names for each position to be filled. Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

SECTION 6. Election of Board Members

ARTICLE XVII—CHURCHWIDE OFFICES OF WOMEN OF THE ELCA

SECTION 1. Location

The principal office of Women of the ELCA shall be in the same location as that of the ELCA.

ARTICLE XVIII—AMENDMENTS AND BYLAWS

SECTION 1. Amendments to the Constitution

The constitution of this organization may be amended through either of the following procedures:

- Item 1. The executive board may propose an amendment and send an official notice to the voting members-elect at least six months prior to the next regular Triennial Convention. The adoption of such an amendment shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at the Triennial Convention.
- Item 2. An amendment may be proposed by 25 or more voting members of the Triennial Convention. The proposed amendment shall be referred to the executive board for its recommendation to the next Triennial Convention. Adoption of such an amendment shall require passage at two successive regular Triennial Conventions by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.

SECTION 2. Amendments to the Bylaws

Bylaws not in conflict with this constitution may be adopted or amended at any regular meeting of the Triennial Convention when presented in writing by the executive board or by at least 15 voting members of the convention. An amendment proposed by members of the convention shall immediately be submitted to the executive board for its recommendation. No amendment shall be placed before the convention for action sooner than the day following its presentation to the convention. A two-thirds vote of the members present and voting shall be necessary for adoption.

SECTION 3. Continuing Resolutions

Provisions relating to the administrative functions of this organization shall be set forth in the continuing resolutions. Continuing resolutions may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the Triennial Convention or by a two-thirds vote of the executive board.
